Windreader's Bow: Whenever Ulfwyr damages a studied target with this bow, he also deals 2 points of bleed damage. As long as the bleed effect continues, he can sense that foe's approximate direction and distance twice per day by smelling the wind as a standard action.

Sword of the Everbright: This 3'11"-long blade bears a phrase in sennarii elven: "far from home / a lonely road / a promise". It is forged of a bright steel alloy, with a double edge, elegant guard and simple pommel. Unbeknownst to anyone not aware of the Everbright and their quest, this sword hums and glows in the vicinity of substantial Morgonljucht ore, and is also the conduit that tethers Ulfwyr to his home world.

Study Target (Ex): Ulfwyr can study a foe he can see as a move or swift action. He gains a +3 bonus on Bluff, Disguise, Intimidate, Knowledge, Perception, Sense Motive, Stealth and Survival checks and a +3 bonus on weapon attack and damage rolls against it, and the DCs of slayer class abilities against it increase by 3. He can only maintain these bonuses against three opponents at a time; he may discard a studied target as a free action. If he deals sneak attack damage to a target, he can study that target as an immediate action.

Burrowing Shot (Ex): When Ulfwyr hits a creature with a ranged attack, as a swift action he can have the arrow lodge itself within the creature's body, causing it to take a -2 penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, ability/skill checks, and 25% spell failure chance with spells that include somatic components. This penalty can be removed with the treat deadly wounds use of the Heal skill or by removing the lodged arrow as a standard action, which deals 1d8 (2d6 with gravity bow) damage.

Animal Focus (Su): bat (darkvision 30 ft.), bear (+2 Con), bull (+2 Str), falcon (+4 Perception), frog (+4 Swim & Jump), monkey (+4 Climb), mouse (evasion), owl (+4 Stealth), snake (+2 atk/AC w. opportunity), stag (+5 ft. speed), tiger (+2 Dex), wolf (scent 10 ft., upwind 20 ft., downwind 5 ft.)

Shared Vigilance (Ex): Virginia and Ulfwyr gain Alertness as a bonus feat when they are adjacent.

Tenacious Guardian (Ex): Virginia can always act in a surprise round (though she remains flat-footed until she acts). As long as Ulfwyr is adjacent, she remains conscious (though staggered) when her hit points fall below 0; she loses 1 hit point per round but gains a +2 morale bonus on attack rolls, saving throws, and skill checks, dying only if her hit points reach a negative total equal to her Constitution score plus Ulfwyr's hunter level.

Bio The two sons of Captain Arthwyr and Fjona Firlyvan, lean Ulfwyr and towering Bjonnir fell to Naerk with the rest of the Everbright. After a little more than a year spent between North Darrok and Sennarin, Ulfwyr survived the Second Sennarii Expedition into Selanahr and went on to become a prominent figure in the Elestari Slave Rebellion just two months later. He is currently working with the zolkari branch of the Berenfaer in their ambitious foreign expansion and reform programmes as a field agent, scout sniper, and paramedic.

He speaks common with a slight north darroki accent. He possesses an inquisitive mind and uncanny eloquence that is severely offset by his pride and misanthropism. His canines are slightly larger than in most humans. Though especially prone to anger, he usually opts to diss and glare instead of raising the tone of his voice (except when it comes to the senile owl Skárl). He often tilts his head in conversation or when concentrating on his hearing. He interrogates captives by having Virginia growl at or sit on them. When not involved in espionage or killing, he studies medicine and philosophy. He smells of rain.

Quote "I often talk too little no' because I can't speak tae people; but because people are blitherin' wisearse fools who will talk back without 'avin' anythin' tae say.

Also, it may be mornin'. Do not frakkin' speak tae me in the mornin'."
